STARTING THE GAME

- The Match Arbiters will check the team composition with the match protocol;
- Players and captains are kindly requested to join the venue with some advance from the starting time and cooperate with the Match Arbiters to check the team line-up;
- Players can only start the clocks when the Chief Arbiter will announce it.

DURING THE GAME

- The Captain is not entitled to advise the players of his team to make or accept an offer of a draw. The Captain must not discuss any position on any board during play;
- The Captain must not stand behind the opposing team during play: we will have chairs for captains, alternatively, they can stay behind their team;
- The Captain is allowed to leave or re-enter the playing venue only with the permission of the arbiter;
- The Captain shall sign the protocol indicating the results in the match at the end of play;
- If the team Captain wishes to speak to one of his players, they shall first approach the arbiter. The team captain shall then speak to the player in the presence of an arbiter, using a language the arbiter can understand. The same procedure shall be followed if a player needs to speak to the captain;
- The Captain can submit appeals or protests on behalf of their players, in accordance with other FIDE regulations.

FINISHING THE THE GAME

- When a game ends the players will wait at the board until the arbiter has recorded the results in the match protocol. The losing players, or both players in case of a draw, will put a signature close to the results;
- After the last game has finished the Captains will sign the match protocol;
- Once players have finished they have to leave the playing hall;
- Who has left the playing hall can't enter until the next round has been announced.

APPEALS

- Appeals shall be lodged by a captain not later than 15' after the end of the particular round;
- Appeals are admissible only if in written form and in English language;
- Any appeal shall be lodged to the Chairman of the Appeals Committee;
- Any appeal shall be accompanied by the appeal fee of 200,00 euros.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION
